

Belize at its Best!

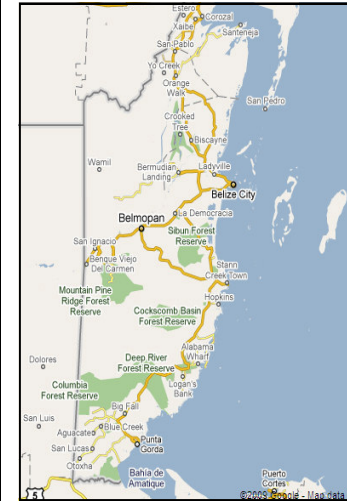

2010 All-Inclusive Package

Machaca Hill Lodge in Southern Belize is one of those little-known destination resorts that you need to visit before it's truly discovered!

With only 12 canopy suites, it is ideal for couples and families who enjoy the outdoors in five-star class!

Rooms are spacious, perched along the mountain side, with a screened porch overlooking the forest canopy.

Situated on over 30,000 acres, just a few miles from the town of Punta Gorda, this area of Belize has the largest number of Mayan Ruins and offers innumerable activities.

These all inclusive packages offer:

- luxurious accommodations
- all meals & beverages (alcoholic and non-alcoholic)
- high tea
- pre-dinner hors d'oeuvres
- full day activities with personal lodge guide (hiking, canoeing, ATV trails, visits to area Mayan ruins, wet cave exploring, waterfall picnics and much more)
- park entrance fees
- laundry service
- one spa treatment per stay

Not included are staff tips (10%); hotel tax (9%) and GST (10%).
